TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOTICE (continued from Column 1)

If a calendar is canceled due to unexpected events, parties may reclaim their motions. If, however, the matter needs immediate action by the court, the party may apply for permission to schedule an earlier hearing date with the court. Note: all citations must be re-issued unless the court orders otherwise.

Markings by attorneys must be submitted electronically through E-Services (www.jud.ct.gov). Self-represented (pro se) parties and attorneys who have obtained an exclusion from E-Services requirements must submit markings by calling 860-437-9828.

Note: Fax markings are not accepted.

Counsel and self-represented parties must give timely notice of markings to all self-represented parties and counsel of record. The court may impose sanctions if notice is not given. The following information is required when making a telephone marking:

- The position of the case on the calendar
- The name and docket number of the case
- The entry number and title of motion
- The full name of the person making the marking and the law firm name, if applicable
- Confirmation that counsel and self-represented parties of record have been notified of the marking

ARGUABLE MATTERS

Counsel and self-represented parties of record must come to court for matters listed on the calendar as Arguable (ARG) and marked "READY." If a party does not come to court for matters listed on the calendar as ARG and marked "READY", the court may decide the motion by reviewing the papers or the court may take action, including, but not limited to, nonsuit, default or dismissal.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information is available on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/StandOrders> and forms are available on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms>.

Note: Under the federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

By Order of the Court.
